Data Protection

As an "unincorporated members club", Hollybush Rifle Club (HRC), is currently exempt from the registration requirements of the Data Protection Act. You should be aware that HRC will hold data on members for the purposes of maintaining its register of its members, accounting and in relation to shooting competitions. The club will supply data to the Police, Home Office or other bodies authorised by statute to require it.

By completing this form you are giving permission for HRC to keep and use information about you. Membership records and competition entry information will be kept for six years, or longer at the discretion of the Committee. Competition results will be retained indefinitely for the purposes of future reference and maintaining historical records and as such they may be distributed to interested parties.
